Overview

The Dual USB power bank from V7 with 11000mAh capacity is capable of charging most phones up to 5 times. The 2.1A USB port has enough juice to power up the latest iPads and Tablets, and the 1.0A port is perfect for charging up your smartphone - and best of all, you can charge them both at the same time. Four LED indicator lights show you the power level and charging status so you'll never need to guess how much power you have left, or how much it's charged, plus it has a built-in super bright LED flashlight for added convenience. The powerbank also features built-in over-charge and short-circuit protection, so you can rest assured your devices are protected. Make sure you have power for your devices whenever you need it most with this powerhouse powerbank from V7.
